OPENING PRAYER

Gracious Lord, You are nearer than hands and feet and closer than breathing, yet we are often conscious of a great gap between You and us. Like Jesus' disciples when He left them to ascend the mountain for prayer, we feel ourselves drifting out to sea, lost in a fog of self-doubt. We are glad, O God, that You are not only aware of our frailty but ready to come to us in the midst of it. With grateful praise, we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
