OPENING PRAYER

O God of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebekah, Jacob and Rachel, with deep humility we recall Your covenant with our ancestors. No matter how much their faith wavered - and they all had moments of doubt and uncertainty - You remained ever faithful. No matter how often they broke covenant with You, You always kept covenant with them. As it was with them, so it is with us. Thank You, dear Lord, for judging us not harshly but mercifully. We praise Your name for not forsaking us, for stooping to us in our depths that You might lift us to Your heights that we would walk more faithfully as disciples of Jesus Christ. In His name we pray. Amen.
