OPENING PRAYER

God our Creator, we come today thanking you for your unconditional love. It was with your love that you painted the sky. It was with your love that you produced the sun to keep us company as we travel during the day and the moon to be with us as we sleep. Your love continues to let us know that we are never alone, but you are always with us. So, God, tattoo your word on our hearts so that our souls may forever be uplifted. Let your laws run through our veins, causing us to rejoice and be glad. We shall rejoice because the same God who painted the night sky is the same God who is still painting our way out of "No Way." Lord, we're depending on you, and it's in Jesus' name, we pray. AMEN!!!
