

We Sing to You, O God

TFWS 2001

We sing to you, O God, the Rock who gave us birth,
let our rejoicing sing your name in all the earth.

To you, O God, let songs be raised,
in joyful hymns, our feast of praise.

We wandered far from home out in a desert land,
you shielded with your love our fearful pilgrim band.
You kept us safe within your arms
and sheltered us against the storm.

You bear us through the world, an eagle to her young,
who rises on her wings and bears us toward the sun.
We ride the vaults of light and air
and trust in your unfailing care.

O God, eternal God, we hide within your wings,
the everlasting arms to whom our praises ring.
Your word is true, your way is just,
you are the God in whom we trust.

Psalm 111

(Responsive Reading)

Praise the Lord.

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who have pleasure in them.

Full of honor and majesty are the works of the Lord whose righteousness endures for ever,

Who has caused his wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and merciful.

The Lord provides food for the faithful and is ever mindful of his covenant.

The Lord has shown his people the power of his works by giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of the Lord's hands are faithful and just; the precepts of the Lord are trustworthy; they are established for ever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

The Lord sent redemption to his people and has commanded his covenant for ever. Holy and wondrous is God's name!

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. The praise of the Lord endures for ever.

Thank You, Lord

Thank you, Lord.

Thank you, Lord.

Thank you, Lord.

I just want to thank you, Lord.
